BALAI KHAZANAH ISLAM SULTAN HAJI HASSANAL BOLKIAH

SULTAN HAJI HASSANAL BOLKIAH ISLAMIC KHAZANAH HALL

INTRODUCTION

The Balai Khazanah Islam Sultan Haji Hassanal Bolkiah, a majestic and modern iconic Islamic architecture designed by renowned PEI Architects, built on one of the highest points of Bandar Seri Begawan and located at Jalan Pengiran Babu Raja, about 3 km from the city centre, was inaugurated and officially opened by His Majesty Sultan Haji Hassanal Bolkiah Mu'izzaddin Waddaulah, the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan of Brunei Darussalam on 13 Safar 1441 corresponding to 12 October 2019.

The Balai Khazanah Islam is a manifestation of the intellectual leadership of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan of Brunei Darussalam in maintaining, empowering and preserving Islamic civilisation and culture as well as promoting Islamic knowledge and heritage globally. It has nine (9) permanent galleries that exhibit His Majesty's extensive personal Islamic treasures collection encompassing artefacts such as Qur'anic Mushafs, Arabic, Persian and Malay manuscripts, prayer beads, walking sticks, fossils, ancient Islamic astronomical instruments, as well as the Noble Hair of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, a fragment of the cloak of the Prophet ﷺ, replicas of the Prophet and his companions' swords, and much more. Balai Khazanah also has a number of world class standard facilities including auditorium, conference room, meeting room, VIP lounge, conservation lab and prayer hall, among others. The magnificent architecture and the Islamic treasure trove also aim to make the landmark as a one stop Islamic tourism destination.
